BIOGRAPHY

Slugwurf is a 19-year-old producer and DJ from Columbus, Ohio, working across jerk, trap, experimental hip-hop, and melodic rap. His records pair infectious melodies with hard drums and an unmistakable bounce, leaving space for each artist to make the song their own.

Born Dia Moss, he landed his first major placement with Flo Milli a week after graduating in 2025, producing 'Perfect Person' featuring Coop. In early 2026, Slimesanti's 'Friendzone :(' reached No. 1 on Spotify's Viral 50 in Argentina and appeared on viral charts in 10 markets across Latin America and Spain. Months later, RhyRhy's 'Summer Bummer (Lights On)' followed with a No. 1 run on TikTok U.S. By October 13, 2026, the record had passed 15 million Spotify streams and reached 8.9 million TikTok creations. His credits also include Oopsy, FattMack, and Lil Chika.

A drummer before he became a producer, Slugwurf has built his sound through years of daily practice. He moves between genres with the same attention to rhythm and melody, making beats that give a vocalist something to respond to.

He continues to produce daily and DJ select events, bringing that same ear for what moves a crowd to both sides of his work.
